

LEVEL 3 CLINICAL TRAINING

GOTTMAN METHOD COUPLES THERAPY

Practicum Training

Presented by Dr. Julie Schwartz Gottman and Dr. John Gottman

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OVERVIEW

Fine-tune and master your skills using Gottman Method Couples Therapy. Participants in the Level 3 Practicum Training, together with Drs. Julie and John Gottman, examine actual video recorded cases of couples brought in by workshop colleagues. The Gottmans use these video recorded cases as teaching and learning tools to help deepen understanding of when and how to use various Gottman Method approaches and interventions, and how to break destructive patterns and replace them with meaningful interactions.

During this workshop, Drs. John and Julie Gottman lead discussions, demonstrate techniques, and provide guidance in developing a road map for clinical decisions. Participants have the opportunity to practice and refine their use of Gottman Method Couples Therapy through participation in role-plays, demonstrations and discussions in a small group setting, and receive personalized guidance and supportive coaching from the Gottmans and Senior Certified Gottman Therapists.

VIDEO PARTICIPATION: CASE DISCUSSION IN PRACTICUM TRAINING

Participants are asked to bring a short, ten minute or so, video segment (on DVD or USB thumb drive) of difficult and challenging couples to the Level 3 workshop. The therapist's work with the couple will not be critiqued; in fact the video does not even need to show the therapist; just seeing the couple is all that is needed. The purpose will be to use these couples to illustrate how the Gottman Method can be applied to these tough cases. Drs. John and Julie Gottman will describe how they would treat these couples and then participants from the audience will volunteer to role play these couples with Drs. John and Julie Gottman demonstrating using a variety of interventions with these couples. Participants will then have the opportunity to practice using these interventions in a supportive small group setting with other participants' role playing the couples from the videos.

Bringing a video recording isn't required, but it will help make the training more meaningful for everyone. If you cannot bring a video segment, it would help to bring a brief written description of a challenging couple for the same purpose. Note: Unfortunately, we are not able to support the following formats: Mini DVD's, "High-8," alternate or nonstandard international formats, such as "Super-8."
